

EDUCATIONUSA PRE-DEPARTURE ORIENTATION SERIES

International Student Employment On & Off Campus

Marci Fradkin

Director of International Outreach and Admissions | Valparaiso University (72km from Chicago, Illinois)

Marci currently oversees all international undergraduate and graduate admissions for Valparaiso University. For over 20 years, she has served in the field of international education working at a variety of institutions from large research to community college. She has traveled, worked, and lived in over 70 countries. She also served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Kenya and studied abroad in both Jordan and Israel.

Lisa A. Maroni

Senior Associate Director, International Outreach | Shoreline Community College (2km north of Seattle, Washington)

Lisa coordinates the Outreach Team that travels to connect with students all over the world on behalf of Shoreline Community College. She is directly responsible for outreach to students, high schools, US Embassies, and education partners in Vietnam, Taiwan, and all countries on the continents of Europe and Africa. She has lived, traveled and worked in over 60 countries, including teaching English in South Korea and Taiwan and serving as a Roberts Fellow at Shih Hsin University in Taipei and a William Jefferson Clinton Scholar at the American University in Dubai.